WOMAN HELPS SWIMMER IN GAMES QUEST

If B. Levene gains selection in South Africa's swimming team for the Empire Games events in Sydney next year, it will be a feather in the cap of Mrs. Finlayson, the "Fairy Godmother of Durban swimmers."

Levene is one of her winter Sunday morning classes, which are conducted on a graded system without handicaps, states the Natal Advertiser.

Levene, who is only 16, recently beat Sprague over 500 yards freestyle in 6.37 4-5, which is good time for winter swimming.

"If he continues to improve as he has been doing," said Mrs. Finlayson, "he should be considered for the Empire Games."

Miss Hazel Holmes, another of Mrs. Finlayson's pupils, has swum 200 yards freestyle in 2.55 over 100-yard laps.
