

Central Queensland Herald (Rockhampton, Qld. : 1930 - 1956), Thursday 27 January 1938, page 3IN SYDNEY FOR THE EMPIRE GAMES

South African and Rhodesian women swimmers in Sydney for the Empire Games are already showing good form. They had practice swims at North Sydney Olympic Pool. Their figures would certainly grace any Sydney beach. Between the two Rhodesian representatives, Miss Rita Baker and Miss Valerie Aitken, are three South African representatives—Miss Hazel Holmes, Miss Molly Ryde, and Miss Carla Gerke.

National Library of Australia

<http://nla.gov.au/nla.news-article70580372>

Central Queensland Herald (Rockhampton, Qld. : 1930 - 1956), Thursday 27 January 1938, page 3

This charming little fellow is Lance, baby son of Count and Countess Haugwitz-Reventlow (formerly Miss Barbara Hutton, the Woolworth heiress). He is on skis at St Moritz, Switzerland, where he is holidaying with his parents.

National Library of Australia

<http://nla.gov.au/nla.news-article70580372>

Central Queensland Herald (Rockhampton, Qld. : 1930 - 1956), Thursday 27 January 1938, page 3

As soon as she arrived last week at Kingsford Smith airport from Melbourne, Mrs Beryl Markham, the Atlantic flyer, powdered her nose and did some "air repairing." She will meet her father before making plans for further record attempts. The Cape to Cairo women's record may then be discussed.

National Library of Australia

<http://nla.gov.au/nla.news-article70580372>

